Trip itinerary:

Day 1 – Arrival to Split

After landing in Split, our bus takes us along the beautiful Adriatic coast to our hotel in Makarska. We check in to our hotel that will be our home and starting point for all of our trips this week. The hotel is situated right next to the sea and the promenade. After the check in, we toast together with our welcome drinks. We meet at the reception before the dinner which is served from 19:00 to 21:00.

Day 2 – Šibenik – Primošten – Trogir

Our stay in Croatia starts with a bus ride to Šibenik which is located north of Split. Our local tour guide takes us on a tour through the beautiful old city streets. After we visit the Saint Jacob's cathedral in the old city center, we have a little free time before we continue with our bus ride that takes us to the Šibenik hinterland to the village of Dubrava. That is the location of the only Croatian Falcon Center where we are introduced to their work that is based on helping injured birds of prey. Afterwards we go to Primošten and Baćulov Dvor. In a simple and modest environment we have lunch together where we are served homemade food and red wine Babić. When the lunch is finished, we visit Trogir, the oldest and smallest town in that area, which was founded by Greeks. Our tour guide show us through small and narrow streets of the city. We return to our hotel and rest before dinner which is served at 19:00..

Day 3 – Dubrovnik

We head south to Dubrovnik, which has been on the UNESCO World Heritage list since 1979. The road we take is alongside the beautiful coastline and the local Swedish tour guide tells interesting stories and descriptions along the way. We stop at Neum in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Walking along the main street – Stradun, we visit the museum – pharmacy that is a part of the cloister of the Franciscan monastery; their church, Sponza palace that holds the city archives and a memorial room for the soldiers that died in the war. The tour is finished with a joint lunch. After the lunch we have free time for a stroll or to climb the Dubrovnik walls that are two kilometers long and border the city core. In your free time you can also take the cable car to the Srđ hill. Or you can just sit, relax and enjoy this town at one of many coffee shops. We return to the hotel right before dinner. (Passport necessary on this TRIP.)

Day 4 – Imotski

The road takes us to a city on the border, Imotski, and its famous lakes – Blue and Red Lake. Lunch is served at a small village at a local family who is famous for their soparnik, a dish that is traditionally made only in this part of the country and that has been on the UNESCO heritage list for several years now. Return to the hotel in the afternoon. Free time for swimming or walking.

Day 5 – Mostar (Passport needed)

A day long trip to Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina. We take a break in Međugorje, a well-known pilgrimage site that is visited by thousands of people from around the world. We continue our ride to Mostar. The city is known for its Old Bridge that was torn down in the Homeland War, but was renewed and is now under UNESCO protection. In Mostar we have a local tour guide that takes us through the old town and cobbled streets, the museum “Turkish house” and the mosque. We have lunch together in a local restaurant that serves traditional food. After lunch we have some free time before heading back to Makarska. We are back at the hotel before dinner.

Day 6 – Split

Today we are visiting the second largest city in Croatia – Split. Split has been on the UNESCO Heritage list since 1979. We walk through the old part of town which is one of the best preserved roman palaces in the world. After the tour we have free time. Return to Makarska in the afternoon.

Day 7 – Free day

After a few intense days with many new experiences to take in, we have a free day for individual activities. We recommend a visit to the old center of Makarska, the small streets, to enjoy the small town which only counts around 14000 people.

Day 8 – Return

After a quiet morning and breakfast, we say our goodbyes to Makarska and head to the Split Airport. We wish you a safe trip home!

Climbing trough Dalmatia

(Higher intensity)

Favorable climate and beautiful sights make Croatia a great place for walking and hiking. We are situated at the bottom of Biokovo Mountain and our walking tours are planned to be along the coast and on the mountains. During our trip, we have five hikes/walks together along with our local mountain guide and our tour leader. They are each about 4 –5 hours long.

Day 1 – Makarska Riviera

We land in Croatia. Our tour guide is awaiting and leads us to our bus that takes us to Makarska Riviera and our hotel that is located right on the beach. Breakfast and dinner are included and are served in the hotel.

Day 2 – Walking tour – Brela, Baška Voda, Promajna, Bratuš, Krvavica – Makarska

The tour we are taking today is along the Adriatic coast to the city of Makarska. The walk is around 14 kilometers long and is fairly simple. Our bus takes us back to the hotel.

Day 3 – Hiking – Gornja Brela

From the hotel we take our bus to Gornja Brela where we start our hike. We begin with a light trip to Saint Nicola's church. After, we continue our hike to the Nevistina Stina, and before returning to Brela, we go down the old road that dates back to the Napoleon times.

Day 4 – Walking tour – Lokva Rogoznica – Saint Vid – Omiš

After breakfast we take the bus to a small place called Lokva Rogoznica that is situated at the bottom of the Omiš hills at around 300 meters above sea. We walk for an hour towards a small, medieval church of Saint Vid that is on 639 meters above sea level. We continue to the Imber hill, and then to the village of Čečuci, where we have a beautiful view on the coastal town of Omiš and the medieval fortress Fortica. We follow the road to Omiš, a former pirate town, situated at the mouth of Cetina River. Here we have some free time before returning to the hotel.

Day 5 – Free day

Today we have a free day to spend however we like. Maybe a trip along the coast or just bathing in the sea and sun.

Day 6 – Walking tour – Saint Jure – Lađana

Today's tour is of higher intensity. The bus takes us to Saint Jure, the mountain top of Biokovo Mountain. The walk begins on 1500 meters above sea level and after a few hours we arrive at the Vošac peak, on 1422 meters. We continue towards Lađana, which is on 1150 meters, where the bus is waiting for us to take us back to the hotel.

Day 7 – Walking tour – Veliko Brdo

Today's hike is also a bit more challenging. The bus takes us to Kotišine. From the village we head to the botanical garden that is located on the hillside above the village and between 350 – 500 meters above sea level. We continue to hike and climb to 750 meters where we walk through the woods to a place called Kruške. After, we continue to Veliko Brdo where the bus is waiting to take us back to the hotel.

Day 8 – Brela – Baška Voda

Breakfast and departure for the airport.

Advice:

- Use worn in shoes with a solid outsole.
- Bring a hiking stick if you own one (not mandatory).
- Use other accessories: a backpack, long pants, a bottle of water, head cover and sun protection cream.

Note: Upon arrival we are situated in one of the hotels in Makarska. You will be notified of the exact hotel 7 – 10 days before departure.
